

Procto Day 2025 Program (provisional)

9:00 – 17:00 Auditorium Luzerner Kantonsspital Luzern

Anal Fistula

Secret to high-quality imaging aiding structured surgical decision-making

Faecal incontinence

Let's talk sensible diagnostics and treatment approach

Dr. sc. med. Dr. med. Roxane D. Staiger, Leitung Proktologie Luzern Kantonsspital Luzern

Dr. med. Frederieke Elsinger, Leitende Ärztin Radiologie, Kantonsspital Luzern

Mr. Phil Tozer, Consultant Surgeon, St. Mark's Hospital, London

Prof. Matthias Turina, Chefarzt Klinik für Viszeral- und Transplantationschirurgie, UniversitätsSpital Zürich

Dr. med. Stephan Baumeler, Co-Chefarzt Gastroenterologie, Kantonsspital Luzern

Ms. Carolynne Vaizey, Consultant Surgeon, St. Mark's Hospital, London

08:30 – 09:00 Registration & Coffee

09:00 – 09:10 Welcome

Anal fistulae

09:10 – 09:35 MRI: technical aspects and sensible interpretation

09:35 – 10:00 Surgical decision making based on imaging

10:00 – 10:30 Fistula surgery: How many techniques should you master?

Frederieke Elsinger

Roxane D. Staiger

Phil Tozer

10:30 – 11:00 Coffee break

11:00 – 11:30 Stem cell treatment for anal fistula: What do we know so far

11:30 – 12:00 Crohn's fistulae: update on medical treatment

12:00 – 12:30 The unusual fistula: differences in surgical treatment approach

Matthias Turina

Stephan Baumeler

Phil Tozer

12:30 – 13:30 Lunch

Faecal incontinence

13:30 – 13:55 Obstetric Anal Sphincter Injury: Any progress since the Middle Ages?

13:55 – 14:15 Anorectal manometry: more than what your finger can tell you?

14:15 – 14:30 MR defecography: do it right - interpret it right

14:30 – 15:00 Faecal incontinence treatment: what is new? what is sensible?

Carolynne Vaizey

Stephan Baumeler

Frederieke Elsinger

Carolynne Vaizey

15:00 – 15:30 Coffee break

What would you do

15:30 – 17:00 Case discussions & live voting

17:00 – 17:10 Closing remarks

Staiger, Elsinger, Tozer, Vaizey,

Baumeler, Turina

Roxane D Staiger

17:10 Apéro